CIB Endorsed Student Chapter

Student Chapter Newsletter Technical University of Lisbon (IST)

The CIB Student Chapter at the Technical University of Lisbon - IST - Department of Civil Engineering and Architecture (DECivil), Portugal recently published its fourth Newsletter "Instituto Superior Técnico: Student Chapter Newsletter No. 4, November 2011."

Publications and Events

The Newsletter lists the publications of Chapter members since 2009.

There are also descriptions of events organized by the Chapter and of post-graduate presentations from 2009 to 2011.

A list of all publications including conference presentations from 2009-2011 can be found at the chapter website here along with access to the previous three Chapter Newsletters.

Research Groups

There are two main research groups within TU Lisbon CIB Student Chapter:

- RG1: Service Life of Construction
- RG2: Sustainable Construction

The newsletter provides information about research studies that are being developed within these two research groups.

The complete Newsletter is now accessible on the CIB website along with information about all CIB Student Chapters. To see the complete Newsletter click here.

General Information on CIB Student Chapters

Information about all 25 CIB Student Chapters can be found on the CIB website here.

Included at that page are "Guidelines for proposals to establish a CIB Endorsed Student Chapter" which provide advice about establishing a CIB Student Chapter at a CIB Member University.

Also downloadable directly from the page are all published CIB News Articles about CIB Student Chapters.
